REV. J. M. WRIGHT will preach at the M. E. church to-morrow (Sunday), morning and evening, at the usual hours.

REV. DR. HANSEN, of Nashville, has been in our city during the past week on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. McReynolds.

THERE was considerable ice last Tuesday morning, though we are glad to learn that the fruit crop is not thought to be injured.

MR. HARVEY WHITFIELD, constable of district No. 2, a decidedly popular young officer, is a candidate for the office of Sheriff.

The conference of the Clarksville District met in Turnersville yesterday and will be in session to-day and to-morrow. Bishop McTear is presiding.

PERSONS indebted to Rev. B. M. Taylor will confer a favor on him by calling and settling with J. H. McPhail, who is authorized to settle his claims here.

The portrait of Mrs. Crutman, painted by Mr. Prescott, of Louisville, at Gardner's is a most excellent portrait, and a high recommendation of Mr. Prescott's skill as an artist.

MORE drift was running during the last rise of the river than we recollect to have seen at any other time. Several coal barges, flat boats and other water crafts passed down the river.

MR. WILLIAM FRAZIER, of Collinsville, is a candidate for the office of Trustee. He is well and favorably known to many of our people and, if elected, will make a good officer.

CLASS-MEETINGS will be held at the residence of A. S. Caldwell, Esq., on Greenwood Avenue, next Thursday night. All who feel an interest in such meetings are cordially invited to attend.

WE are glad to learn that our information in regard to the children of Mr. Attaway and Mr. Mockbee being, was incorrect. Neither of the children was bitten.

NEARLY all the Assessors of the county were in attendance last Monday. We learn that there is a slight decrease in the assessments, of both personal and real property, from those of last year.

WE are glad to learn that Capt. FRANK M. DUFFY has assumed the editorial charge of the Franklin (Ky.) Patriot. Capt. Duffy is a newspaper man of ability and experience, and we welcome his return to his old vocation.

FINE STOCK.—Webb Garth, of Kentucky, sold to Mr. Kropp, of this city, last Wednesday an Alderney cow and calf for $175. Mr. Kropp has sold the calf now two weeks old, to Dr. Greenfield, to be delivered at weaning time for $75.00.

MR. LEO H. SMITH, one of the popular agents of the Elephant Warehouse, announces himself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff. Mr. Smith has made himself very popular as a tobacco man and would, doubtless retain that popularity as an officer.

On the morning of the 19th inst., a ball of lightning said to have been as large as a man's head ran along the telegraph wires at Gallatin and into the office, where it exploded, shocking Mr. Barth, the ticket agent, who was within a few feet of it.

ANDERSON & BRIGHAM, in addition to their other business, will deal extensively in lake ice during the coming season, delivering it daily to retail customers, or supplying it wholesale to all who desire it at as low figures as it can profitably be sold.

OUR friend, H. W. Watts, of New Providence, is announced as a candidate for the office of Attorney-General of this county. Mr. Watts is a gentleman of worth and integrity, a lawyer of ability, and would discharge all the duties of the office with promptness and fidelity.

Patrons of Husbandry.

R. H. Ogburn, former Deputy Master, was re-appointed at the meeting of the State Grange in Gallatin, and having received proper commission is now the General Deputy for Montgomery, Cheatham and Houston counties, and is fully authorized to organize subordinate Granges, and do all other business of Deputy in said counties.

DURING the storm of last week the smoke-house and an office of Mr. G. T. Abernathy were blown down and an office burned. There were five boys, scholars of Mr. A., in the office which was blown down, all of whom escaped unhurt except Sim, Shelton, son of Jno. F. Shelton, who had one of his feet severely mangled.

THE OLD FOLKS' CONCERT.

The people of our city are indebted to the originators, managers and participants of the Old Folks' Concert for two of the most enjoyable entertainments with which they have ever been favored. The first came off Tuesday night last and was attended by a very large audience, many of whom were attracted, no doubt, by the novelty of the entire affair. They found, however, that its novelty was only one of its many agreeable features.

As previously announced, all the costumes were of ancient date, and were in keeping with the program presented and the style of its presentation. A description of these ancient garments would tax the ingenuity of even a Jenkins of modern times, and we will not attempt it.

The first tune on the programme was "The Old Time Song," the opening verse of which was sung by Squire Caldwell. (By the way, one would suppose that the costume of a hundred years ago would detract something from the good looks of so handsome a man, but the Squire's appearance was but slightly changed, and he still retains, unimpaired, his well deserved reputation for beauty.) The entire company joined in the chorus, and it "sounded like old times," indeed, to those whose memory reaches back for a quarter of a century.

"The Fishers," by Mrs. Craig and Mr. Dorman, of Nashville, was a beautiful piece of music, well sung and rapturously applauded.

"On the Sunny Side," by Misses Bettie McReynolds, and Mary Holmes and Dr. Morrison was one of the sweetest songs of the evening.

Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Patton, Miss Hughes, Dr. Morrison, W. A. Settle, J. L. Blanton and Master Jimmie Hammett brought down the house in "Cousin Jedediah," and were called back by the audience.

"Come and see me," by Mrs. Joshua Rice was one of the gems of the evening, sung in a very effective manner, and with a very sweet voice.

"Call John," a very humorous song, was presented in an amusing style by Misses Hughes, Wardle, Rice and Atkins and Messrs. Morrison, Coats, Smith and Settle.

"Barbara Allen," by Mrs. Patton, one of the sweetest singers of the evening, was loudly applauded and encouraged.

"Come and see me," by Mrs. Joshua Rice was one of the gems of the evening, sung in a very effective manner, and with a very sweet voice.

SOUTH-WESTERN UNIVERSITY.

Moving at Huntsville, Ala., and Jackson, Tenn.

The Nashville Patriot says:

"We are advised by a letter that on the 17th instant the city of Huntsville was notified by the South-Western University, by a letter of the 17th inst., that the Jackson Herald, of March 21st, publishes an account of a large and enthusiastic meeting held at Jackson, composed of the leading citizens of every phase of religious and political faith. After a number of stirring speeches and earnest resolutions, they appointed committees—one to prepare and issue an address to the people, and another to solicit subscription in every civil district in the county and in every ward of the city. They further gave evidence of their earnestness in the matter by taking handsome subscriptions on the spot. We publish in another column the address of the committee referred to, which they have issued to the people of Madison county. This address is good for the people of Montgomery county and Clarksville as far as they are concerned. The crisis of this great matter is upon us. The time is come for action. We must not lose this great prize. We have the advantage in location, health and the nucleus of our thriving young college, and if Clarksville will for once be true to herself, she shall not doubt reap all the advantages set forth in that paper."

RAISING FINE STOCK.—We are glad to notice a disposition on the part of stock raisers in this section to improve the quality of the stock raised, and to this end many fine horses are being brought here. Among the fine horses offered to breeders around here, we are assured there are none better than the excellent saddle and harness horse, Bombshell, owned by our young friend, Jesse F. Allenworth. Bombshell, though only three years old, has taken several premiums at the various fairs, and took one, at Hopkinsville, over the celebrated Northern horse from upper Kentucky.

MR. S. W. MARTIN, near the Mouth of Yellow creek, has the splendid thoroughbred horse, Richmond, whose pedigree can be traced back, through both sire and dam, to the best blooded stock of England.

MAD DOGS.—From private notes received from Cumberland Furnace and McAllister's X Roads, we learn that several mad dogs have been killed in those neighborhoods, and others have been bitten, whose owners neglect to kill or put them up, thus endangering the lives of people rather than lose a few worthless dogs. One child was bitten some days since, who, our correspondent thinks, will go mad. The dogs in these sections should be killed or closely confined.

Since the above was written we learn that a cow belonging to Mrs. Dixon, near McAllister's X Roads, was bitten by one of the dogs some time since, went mad and had to be killed.

J. M. ROGERS, the present incumbent of the office of County Register, is a candidate for reelection. He has been in the office for four years, and during that time we have never heard any complaint of his manner of doing the business of the office from any one. Mr. R. is a worthy gentleman, who unfortunately for himself can not earn a livelihood by hard labor, and this fact with the general satisfaction his past course has given, will, we hope, secure his reelection.

THE ladies of the Presbyterian Church propose getting up a second entertainment, to raise funds for their projected new church, about the middle of April.

They hope to offer to the public some tableaux upon a handsome scale than any heretofore presented, and will do their utmost to furnish a pleasant evening's recreation, to all who are disposed to aid them in this way, in their work.

MR. DAVID W. COOKE has returned from Pittsburg, Cincinnati, New York and all of the other principal cities in the east, and is now receiving one of the largest and best assorted stock of house-furnishing goods, queensware, notions, etc., that has ever been brought to this market. The ladies are particularly invited to examine his stock. He means business, and will sell you good goods and cheap goods.

J. M. DABNEY, formerly cashier of the dry goods house of B. F. Coulter, opens to-day a dry goods store, in Hillman's block, where he has a large and entirely new stock of dry goods, furnishing goods, notions, etc. Mr. Dabney is a thorough business man, and is at home in the dry goods business. He will keep the very best goods and sell them at low figures.

SINCE the sale days of tobacco, on this market, have been changed so as to commence on Thursday, we are enabled to give our readers the quotations within two days after the sales. We call the attention of our warehousemen to this fact, and request them to furnish us reports of their Thursday's sales, every Friday morning.

MR. ED. LEWIS, of the firm of Pittman & Lewis, has just returned from New York, and they are now receiving and opening their large and well selected stock of Spring and Summer clothing. Mr. Lewis has displayed his usual good taste in his purchases.

WE were glad to meet our former townsman Mr. E. Withers, now of the Rodman Warehouse, Cincinnati, O., on our streets this week. "Life looks as well and as young as he did in days of 'auld lang syne'."

Down! Down! Down!—Don't fail to read Williams' spring advertisement, which will appear in the next issue of this paper. He has just returned from the shoe districts of the east, Boots and Shoes are down! down! down!

THE Hook and Ladder Boys return thanks to the Clarksville String Band for their valuable assistance at their last entertainments, and to Mr. R. B. Tarpley for favors kindly shown them.

THE new styles of Spring hats can be seen at the Red Corner, Mr. Charlie Stapp, who is a polite clerk in this establishment, will take pleasure in showing them to you.

R. P. MARSH has opened a saloon next door to the express office, where he keeps all kinds of liquors, cigars, tobaccos, etc.

WE make the following extract from the Springfield Record.

Those who are acquainted with our neighbor can readily see that the "cast of character" in the performance referred to was perfect.

"It is seldom you see a newspaper honest enough to give both sides of a question—especially when said journal is involved in a controversy. Generally just enough is reproduced by the editor to mislead the reader. We never could see the reason why this business unless for the purpose of keeping people in the dark and make it appear as though they had money ed the foe. Now the Clarksville Tobacco Leaf never does 'tell a tale' in full, and we herewith reprint an article as it appeared in the Leaf a few days since, which does fairly as far as it goes, but the 'tale is half untold.'"

Now if a man in any undertaking notices a project where he will encounter formidable competition he must be equally as well equipped and prepared as his competitor is. In our "Sweetened" we felt the necessity of a money-lender to meet the trials and buffet of life, without a mother's love to guide and direct them. Her husband knows and feels his loss, for to him was a "winning" in very truth. Her neighbors, who were her friends, join the afflicted family and relations in sorrow at their loss.
